

IN WATER WAGON AND YET HE WASN'T ON IT

Driver, Who Sprinkled Sidewalk and Passers by, Gets Chance to Slumber in Cell.

The frightened squeal of a nurse as she pulled a baby carriage over the curb to the sidewalk at Broadway and Sixty-eighth street caused Policeman Muller to note the eccentric direction of a sprinkling cart bumping across the path of a street car, and then he and up onto the sidewalk, spouting all within range.

Muller ran to the team and stopped the horse.

"Get away from the front of my horse!" shouted the driver, Frank Haren of No. 528 West Forty-fifth street.

"Why do you drive on the sidewalk?" asked Muller.

"This is a water wagon you see me driving," retorted Haren sternly, "and I drive where I please."

"This no water wagon you are on," replied Muller, "and I'll thank you to come down to the street before I pull you down."

In the end the policeman had tooust the cart and drive it to the West Sixty-eighth street station, where Haren was locked up until his physical condition could be harmonized with his office to the community.

OPEN-AIR GAMBLER LOSES.

Court Orders $5 Wager Restored and Fines Accused.

When Maurice Amazon of No. 645 Stens avenue, the Bronx, appeared in the West Side Court to-day as complainant against William Harris, a negro, and accused him of having snatched $5 from his wallet at Eighth avenue and Forty-third street, Magistrate McGuire had his doubts.

He questioned the prisoner and learned that Amazon had bet his $5 on the turn of a card in a three card monte game on the corner and had lost the bet.

"Give the witness $5 back to this prisoner," the Magistrate ordered. "He lost it fairly enough and wasn't sport enough to keep quiet."

Then he discharged Harris.

DIVORCED MRS. ZAHN KEEPS LIFE INSURANCE

$50,000 on the Life of Her Former Husband Part of the Settlement.

Although divorced from Bernhard Zahn, of the Sayles-Zahn chain of butcher shops and part owner of the Walton Hotel in Philadelphia, Mrs. Ada E. Zahn will hold a $50,000 insurance policy on his life and will receive $5,000 a year for the remainder of her life. These were the terms of settlement included in a final decree of divorce granted to the wife to-day by Supreme Court Justice Giegerich.

The Zahns were secretly divorced last June, when Mrs. Zahn, aided by two detectives, testified that she had broken into a room in the Hotel Altion, where they found Zahn in the company of a young woman whose name the raiding party did not stop to get.

Zahn is a clubman and motor boat enthusiast. He formerly lived at Whitestone, where his boats are kept.

PANEL OF 150 ORDERED FOR CARMAN TRIAL

Nearly Fifty Witnesses to Be Called in Freeport Murder Case.

By order of Supreme Court Justice Charles H. Kelby, sitting at Mineola, a panel of 150 jurymen was drawn to-day by County Clerk Thomas S. Cheshire for the Extraordinary Term of Supreme Court, beginning next Monday, at which Mrs. Florence Carman of Freeport is to be tried for the killing of Mrs. Lulu D. Bailey.

The panel is an extraordinarily large one, as the usual number drawn for regular terms of court does not, as a rule, exceed thirty-six. The trial of Mrs. Carman, it is expected, will last at least a week. About thirty witnesses will be subpoenaed on behalf of the people, and at least a score will be called by the defense.

HEADACHE, COLD OR SOUR STOMACH, REGULATE YOUR BOWELS—10 CENTS

Sick headaches! Always trace them to lazy liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or a sick stomach. Poisonous, constipated matter, gases and bile generated in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache. Cascarets will remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipation poison move on and out of the bowels. One taken to-night straightens you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular, and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets, too.

La Promenade des Toiletttes

A History-Making Fashion Event.—Why?

Before telling you why, we shall turn over the pages of Fashion history to last March, when we held our Spring Exhibition. In that display we introduced "La Mienne," the first frock with a Basque which was created by Premet. At that time we prophesied that it was the coming mode. And by June the basque costume was worn by all the fashionable women of Europe and America. Even now it is fashionable. In our present exhibition we have introduced the

New Costumes with Wide Skirts

and we are thoroughly convinced that these models from Premet, Cheruit, Callot and Martialet Armand are indicative of the style of tomorrow—and probably of next Spring. In comparison, these new wide skirts are just as smart as those of 1890 were dowdy. In new style they are extremely short and they flare without looking cumbersome.

The Last—the Real—Paris Fashions Gowns, Wraps, Suits, Furs and Millinery are presented in promenade by mannequins, between 10.30 A. M. and 12 M.; also 2 and 4 P. M.

The Three Newest Hats of Paris

Perfectly Reproduced in the Best Imported Materials—at Mere Fractions of Paris Prices

The Hat with Spears of Fur by Reboux—$15

The sketch is indicative of the smartness of this hat. It is of black velvet, trimmed with skunk.

The Military Sailor By Georgette—$16.50

The crown of this hat is very much like the helmet worn by the Uhlans. This hat is of black velvet, bound around the edge and around and on the top of the crown with black grosgrain ribbon—and there are tiny spears of jet at the sides of the brim and at the top of the crown.

The Ostrich Trotteur Hat By Mary & Annie—$15

This hat possesses what might be called Viennese chic—it flares so coquettishly at the side. Brule ostrich encircles the crown and forms the aigrettes at the side.

$5 to $100 Ostrich Plumages at $3.75 to $75

$10 to $12 Paris Untrimmed Hats, $4.35

Bernard's Quaint Coatee Frock, $32.50

The picturesqueness of the coatee is not more important than the artistic combination of materials which this dress introduces—the coatee is of a peculiarly beautiful tone of old blue velvet and the skirt is of black satin, as is also the sash, which is finished with long steel fringe.
